The course, designed primarily for middle and high school teachers (English/Language Arts, Science, Social Studies, Math, or teachers in other grade bands or content interested in argument), will focus on key issues in the teaching and learning of argumentative writing. Argumentation and argumentative writing are particularly important for thinking and learning across content areas. Great for debate team and mock trial advisors too!

Topics Include:
- Defining argument, argumentation, and argumentative writing
- Verbal argumentation in the classroom (discussion, debates, etc.) and its connections to argumentative writing and reading/literature instruction
- Strategies for teaching argumentative writing
- Assessing argumentative writing

Summer Semester
Five Day Course
June 6- June 10, 2016
Location: TBD
Time: 8:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Course Cost: Three Franklin County Fee Authorizations* or $2,2326

Requirement: Must be of Graduate School standing

*Teachers must request and have approval from their district for fee authorization use before registering.

You will leave each day with new activities you can do in your classroom!

For more information contact:
Casey Hammond, hammond.474@osu.edu, 614-292-2742